OUR PRODUCTS

Lamb and Mutton

At Shera Farming, we are committed to a more mindful and ethically sustainable approach to food production, we do this by minimizing the use of drugs, chemicals, and hormones in our food production, thus reducing our impact on the environment, and focusing on the welfare and health of the animals we keep.

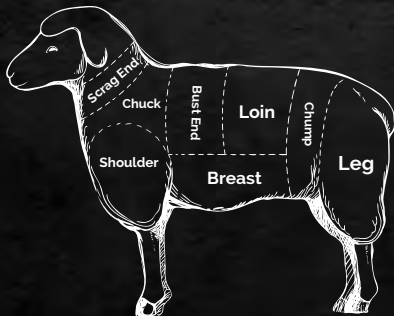

Shera Farming strives to rear healthy and wholesome sheep by upholding purity, health, wellness, hygiene, and compassion as our highest standards. We ensure the quality of our Lamb and Mutton products are aligned with international agricultural standards. In addition to this, all our products are guided by Islamic legal requirements of halal (defined as food that is permissible to consume according to Islamic standards).

“Not just Halal, but Tayyib”

Halal standards are premised on an Islamic philosophy of tayyib, a comprehensive set of ethical practices that ensures the full spectrum of the halal food production chain is one that is pure, compassionate, wholesome, nutritious, safe and eco-sensitive. All our products carry the Clean, Green, Ethical conformity assurance mark.
